Life itself
Is a spectrum of moods . . .
You may be gazing at the sky
And dreaming of future days . . .
Or quietly smiling
And remembering sweet days that are gone.
Whether school activities
Or a secret world of your own
Has filled up this year of your life . . .
It has been a special year . . .
One that can never be relived.
A year of sharing smiles . . .
Of laughing . . . of cheering,
And a year of serious work . . .
Of reaching . . . of growing.
Maybe there is a link
To this wide spectrum . . .
A universal symbol
Of energy and of life . . .
Maybe this year is also . . .
A year of sunshine.

Undefeated . . . a word we have been waiting for since 1964. The dream finally became a reality this year as the Pioneers rolled over nine straight opponents, shutting out five of them and clinching our first Class A Championship. Under the direction of Coach Donald Marino and led by co-captains Jim Lazo and Larry Druckenbrod, the team gathered confidence and a strong reputation early by defeating Northbridge in the jamboree. The Pioneers went on to score 218 points on the season, while holding their opponents to only 56 points. For the seniors, four years of hard work culminated in the Thanksgiving Day victory over arch-rival Bartlett High of Webster. Outstanding individual performances, as well as great team effort, were turned in by Bob Slattery, Mike Trudeau, Bill Power, Marc Costanzi, Greg Polanik, Bill Foley, Dave Travinski, Bob Anderson, Mark Quevillon, Bill Hibbard, Dave Caouette, Jim Marcucci, Paul Zarzycki, and Jeff Theodoss.

Southbridge Eats Turkey

Mixed emotions are evident on the faces of the opposing captains just before the toss of the coin.

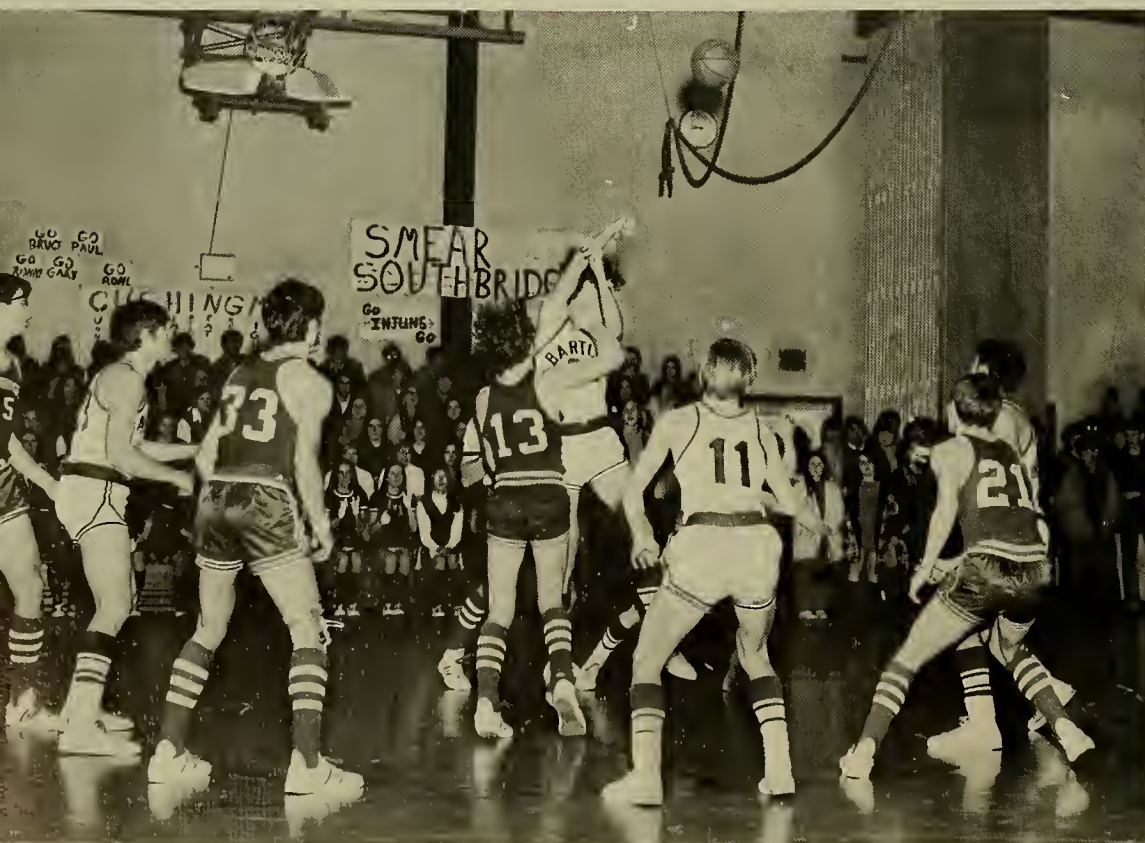

All possible dreams were realized on Thanksgiving morning as the Pioneers whitewashed Bartlett 20-0. Quarterback Jim Lazo tossed two touchdown passes to Larry Druckenbrod in the sweeping victory. Junior Ken Madore, who rolled up 140 yards, was chosen Most Valuable Player. Next year's tri-captain, Jim Power, Ken Madore and Bill Learned were introduced that night at the victory dance.

A special commendation goes to Robert Caprera who, with a 75, qualified for the state schoolboy championship competition.

EVENTS

"Somewhere Over the Rainbow"

The hours were long, beginning in January; the work was hard, but the memories are unforgettable . . .

the Senior Prom . . .

"Over the Rainbow"

Jerry Seco's band provided the musical background for the magical land of Oz. All the familiar characters were there, including the Wicked Witch of the West and the Cowardly Lion. The Class of 1971, in appreciation of their tireless assistance, presented Mr. Paul and Mr. Gosk with commemorative plaques.

A Night in the Land of OZ . . .

In gratitude, the Class of 1971 presented plaques to Mr. Paul and Mr. Gosk. FROM LEFT: Mr. Paul, Martha Palmerino, Jeffrey Theodoss, and Mr. Gosk.

The queen and her court: Alexis Benoit and Arthur Proulx, Beth Mason and Michael Lee, Janet Sexton, queen, and William Martin, Louise Proulx and William Power, and Gail Goudreau and Thomas Holden.

Up the Down Staircase

Laughter of recognition and sighs of understanding from both students and faculty . . . "Up the Down Staircase", the all-school play, proved to be a high spot in stage production at SHS. Directed by Mr. McManis, the play featured senior Beth Hiron as Sylvia Barrett, first-year high school teacher. Outstanding performances were turned in by Joe Arsenault, Bonnie Asselin, Doreen Boulanger, John Harwood, Charles Orzech, Marc Lefebvre, Jane Niejadlik, Laura Newell, David Benjamin, Sandy Shanbaum, Gail Pingeton, Sue Waldron, Shelley Baker, Merilynn Johnson, and Nancy Lane. Miss Barrett's students were Robert Spielvogel, Jill Normandin, Kathy Peloquin, Dave Lane, Jim Fournier, Debbie Lacasse, Jim Santo, Elaine Apostola, Barbara Johnson, Missy Hughes, Clare Morrill, Dennis Perry and Tom Johnston.

The Gazebo

"The Gazebo", presented by the Teachers' Association to raise money for the scholarship fund, will hopefully start a tradition at SHS. Mr. John Flannery and Miss Beverly Poliks played the leads in the hilarious production. In supporting roles were Charles Orzech, Mr. Albert Thomas, Mr. Richard Moore, Miss Constance L'Ecuyer, Mr. Michael Veshia, Miss Sandra Tortis and Mr. Thomas Crompton.

Senior Class Play

In November, "Take Her, She's Mine", a play by Phoebe and Henry Ephron, was presented on the Southbridge High School stage by the senior class. This witty and provocative comedy was warmly received by the audience.

The play was directed by Mr. Dennis McManis. Bob Haynes and Beth Hiron played the father and his college-age daughter. Ann Kosakowski was the mother and Linda Richard was the fourth family member. Jim Fournier, Dave Caprera, Emily Proulx, Carolyn MacDonald, Barbara Blackmer, Larry Druckenbrod, Gerry Lafleche, Jack Boyle, Dennis Perry, Marc Charette, George Lovely, Arthur Arpin and Marc Lefebvre all played supporting roles.

Freshman Reception

The freshmen met the seniors and faculty at the annual reception and found out that being in high school wasn't so bad after all. The seniors, finding that they had finally made it, took advantage of the opportunity to command respect from the freshmen. Entertainment for the evening was provided by Terra Firma

Student Council Sponsors Beauty Contest

"Wait a minute! Fix my wig. Do I have enough rouge on?
Is the skirt alright?" It sounded like the girls' locker room, but it was really the boys getting ready for the Student Council beauty contest. The contestants weren't beautiful, but they helped raise money for the Easter Seal Campaign.

International Day

International Day was the theme of an open house sponsored by the Home Economics Department. Students contributed their own national dishes and a display of art objects from many different countries was set up.

Rallies

Well-planned, enthusiastic and sometimes deafening . . . Rallies. Led by the "Spirit" of SHS and the cheerleaders, and supported by the Pep Club, the students generated the positive enthusiasm that undoubtedly contributed to our great football season. The final and best rally was held the day before Thanksgiving, with each class competing for the best rally display. The juniors had the best display and the seniors took first place in the noise contest.

Prizes were awarded by Miss Lillian Miskavich, cheerleader advisor.

Christmas Concert

"Hey! Look Me Over" . . . The audience, one of the largest ever at a Christmas concert, was given a look at the new Scarlet Troubadours, Boys' and Girls' choruses and the special chorus under the direction of Mr. Gary Feurer.

The groups, along with a sophisticated band led by Mr. Thomas Kruczek, performed an impressive and imaginative program.

Completing the evening was a surprise performance by the new teachers' chorus.

Dinner Dance

Candlelight, checked tablecloths, music . . .

The Student Council, with Mr. Jeffrey Larson as advisor, performed the impossible once again as they transformed the cafeteria into an attractive setting for their annual supper dance. Their attention to detail, including a dessert buffet, gave the affair a professional touch.

Pancake Breakfast

Talent Show

The evening of March 21, 1970 saw the world premiere of the unforgettable show-of-shows, the SHS Talent Show. After hours of intensive rehearsal, the performers displayed a wide variety of abilities, ranging from the light-footed antics of Gerry Lafleche to the debut of Booby and Bone. The evening was hailed by all as an artistic success.

The First Annual Southbridge High School Girls' Invitational Basketball Tournament was held during February vacation.

Interest and excitement built up all week in anticipation of the finals on Saturday. Marian High of Worcester emerged victorious in the large-school division with a close win over a hard-fighting Holy Name of Worcester. MVP winner, Ellen Cronin of Marian tallied her 1,000th career point during the tourney. In the small school division, St. Mary's of Worcester outclassed Douglas behind the MVP performance of Sue Rojewicz. Sue broke her own scoring record with a 43-point output in the final game. In the first game of the tournament, SHS girls lost a 3-point heartbreaker to Nipmuc Regional High of Mendon. Our girls started the tourney off right, however, with a fine display of team play and sportsmanship.
